

Local Matters.

Saturday Morning, 7 A.M., April 30, 1859.
We are indebted to Mr. Wm. E. Morris, of the firm of Morris & Co., for the following:

C. S. Morehead, of Kentucky, arrived at this city last night by the steamer Southern.

LORENTZ.—His has received the New York Ledger for May 7, (he has all the back numbers), and Louis's Illustrated. They can be had at his stand at the Warehouse House.

RESCUE CO. — The sum to be distributed, yesterday, amounted to $75, of which $25 was given to the colored men, and several hundred to the chain-gangs.

LAWLESS.—M. E. Cochran, of the Lawless Yard, has received a large quantity of bacon. He has on hand an excellent stock of shingles and pine flooring. Examine his stock.

THE FRIENDS.—Attention is invited to the card of Messrs. Smallie & Co., who have recently fitted up a superb saloon for the "river men" on the south side of the river.

RESCUE CO.—There, Burke, a fugitive from the chancery, was arrested yesterday, and the period of his servitude was doubled. It will now require twenty-three days to complete his servitude.

THE HORSE CLUB.—There will be a meeting of the members of the Memphis Jockey Club at the Warehouse House, at half past seven o'clock this evening. A full attendance is desired.

ANARCHIST.—WHITE WOMEN.—One has been a negro woman, was arraigned before the Recorder yesterday, on the charge of assaulting Mrs. Stone, on DeSoto street, and required to pay a fine of ten dollars.

A number of typographical errors occurred in the publication of the proceedings at Somersville, while appeared in our paper yesterday. We notice that the name of Henry McLean was printed for that of Henry McCain.

MILLITIA'S ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE.—The May number of this excellent magazine is out; it has a colored fashion plate, and measures up with a large amount of reading matter. Price, 25 cents. Also, the Commercial Hotel, is the sole agent for it in this city.

THE GENTRY.—Another gold horse, named Miss St. Clair, and Mr. Sedley at Gold's, had racing in the popular play of Mam'zelle. The author, again, manages to complete with the felicitous comedy of Antony and Cleopatra.

WHAT A NAME!—A fine negro, who gave his name to Beverly Johnson, was arrested yesterday for living in this city, in the law-giving free negroes. A sum of $5 was demanded against him, and he was directed to leave the State within five days.

JUVENILE CAMPBELLS AND CONFIDENTIALS.—This enterprising troupe of young performers, who have been here for some time, will give an exhibition this afternoon at Old Fellow's Hall, at 3 o'clock, for the convenience of ladies and children, who are always delighted with their youthful performances. At night, they will give a concert as usual.

THE NEW YORK LIGHT GUARDS.—Mr. A. Rossiter, who comes from the Arkansas country yesterday, brought with him a half pair of buck's horns, the tips of which are gaily ornamented with gold. It is his intention to present them to the military association of New York Light Guards, of which organization Mr. Rossiter is a member. The horns were shipped for New York by the Adams Express, last evening.

ANOTHER SCRAPES GONE.—We are called upon to announce the death of John Langhorne, of Pittsburg, Penn., who died at the Wardsburg Hotel, on Saturday, from injuries received by the explosion of a gunpowder keg, on November 2d. His remains were interred in the cemetery of the Union Association.

BROWN'S COTTON.—We learn from the New York Tribune that Mr. Brown, who was engaged in cotton trading, has sold his interest in the business to Mr. H. C. Smith & Co., of New York, and is now in the mercantile service as a shipper of cotton.

A FEMALE THIEF.—We understand that Mary Hayford, has been arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing twenty dollars from a druggist's associate.

WE ARE PLEASED TO STATE.—That the Report of the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen, which appears on our first page this morning, having reference to our city's financial condition, was "entirely correct."

THE SPRING MEETING OF THE GOLDEN STAIR.—On Saturday, May 5, will be opened at the Hotel de l'Europe, in the morning, at 10 o'clock, the annual meeting of the Golden Stair.
